

Subject City and town expenditures for their historical societies

Authors Howard and Ecklund

Analyst Deborah A. Dyson

Date March 26, 2019

Overview

Currently, a city or town may spend money to support the county historical society. This bill allows a city or town to spend money on its city or town historical society as well as the county's.

Effective the day following final enactment.